ABE FRANK'S FINE RACE.

Although there was no betting at Harlem yesterday, a good card of six races was run off in the presence of the usual big attendance.

The feature event of the day, the Graduate Stakes, went to G. C. Bennett's great colt Abe Frank, who beat his stable companion, Ed Austin, in a handy manner. Pat Dunne's Arian, who ran third, showed to advantage and proved himself a fair horse, being beaten only two and one-half lengths, all told in fast time. Charles W. Meyer was undoubtedly short and was always outrun. He was given an easy race when seen he had no chance.

Gonfalon stuck gamely to his task in the sprint race and finally got up in time to beat Bessie Macken on the post in a fierce drive. Bessie Macken showed all her old time speed but hung when Money Muss got to her at the last eighteenth. They both lost ground by swinging wide at the stretch turn and this may account for Gonfalon's victory as he clung to the inside rail throughout the race.

Ozle finally showed his true form and won a well-earned race by beating Mabel Winn after the latter had tired in the last sixteenth. Myth was dropped into an easy berth in the fifth race, while Leo Newell prevailed in a hard drive by a head over Nettie Regent in the last.

HARLEM RACING SUSPENDED.

There will be no racing at Harlem today, nor in fact during the remainder of the week. Entries were closed yesterday at the usual hour, but at a meeting of the officials and attorneys of the club last night, it was decided to call the meeting off. In behalf of the Harlem Jockey Club secretary Nathanson last night issued the following statement for the information of the public:

"Our intention was to race out the remaining three days of our meeting without pool selling, but our attorneys' advice is not to race as such action might be construed as disrespectful to the court's injunction and might injure our case, which comes up on Monday and which we expect to win. We stopped all betting in the regular way this afternoon, but it is impossible to prevent the people from making wagers among themselves, and that might be used in a manner prejudicial to the Harlem Jockey Club. The horses and horsemen are all here and are not likely to run away with the Washington Park meeting opening on Saturday. Our meeting would have closed on Friday, anyhow, so it is only a matter of a temporary suspension, as the case comes up on Monday, we feel quite confident of winning it."

MARTIN NATHANSON,
Secretary, Harlem Jockey Club.

AT WASHINGTON PARK.

Bonnibert, Beau Gallant and Blues arrived at Washington Park yesterday safe and sound. Furthermore Secretary Howard received a telegram yesterday from Mr. W. L. Powers requesting him to reserve twelve stalls for William Oliver, three for Charles Littlefield, two for James R. Keene, and twelve for R. T. Wilson, Jr., and saying that The Parader, Outlander and Sweet Lavender would be in the consignment coming.

This makes it appear that Outlander, at least, will represent Mr. Keene in the American Derby. As this shifty colt won a mile dash at Sheepshead Bay, Monday, with 118 pounds up, in 1:39%, and will probably have the assistance of Spencer in the saddle, he is a racing factor to be viewed with respect. At this time it appears assured that Bonnibert, Blues, Beau Gallant, The Parader, Outlander, Sadie S. and Sweet Lavender will represent the East in Saturday's big race.

ALCEDO.

As aftermath of this year's sensational Suburban Handicap the New York Sun of Monday says: "J. H. McCormick, who trained Alcedo, was busy receiving congratulations yesterday. His clever handling of the colt and the mystery with which he cloaked the private workings of the winner were the subject of much discussion by turfmen. In an interview Mr. McCormick said to a reporter of The Sun:

"The reason Alcedo ran in my name was because the owner, Louis V. Bell, having bought the colt for $10,000 last winter, did not care to have him run in his name because of his mother's recent death. When I took hold of Alcedo I found that it would be impossible to get him ready for the Brooklyn Handicap, so I took my time, with the idea of having him fit for the Suburban. In his two races at Gravesend I'll admit that he did not do so well, but it must be remembered that in the first race he carried 126 pounds and was third to First Whip and Dr. Barlow, while in the race where he was beaten by Tan Candles, Kamara, Bonibert and All Gold, a week ago he was the victim of a poor start and incompetent handling.

"Last Thursday I gave Alcedo a private trial when everybody had left Sheepshead to see the Brooklyn Derby run at Gravesend. The colt ran a mile and a quarter with his weight up in 2:04. It was the best trial I ever witnessed and when the horse pulled up sound I knew I had the winner of the Suburban. So I told everybody I could about the colt's condition, for I was sure that he would win. He fully came up to expectations and is the best horse I ever trained in my life."

"McCormick is a veteran horseman. From stable boy he became a jockey and then a trainer. He had a big racing string in the days of Guttenberg and Gloucester and pulled off many a 'good thing.' On Saturday just before the first race McCormick began to tell all of his friends as well as the turf writers that Alcedo would take the trick. The secret had been kept so carefully, however, that up to noon Alcedo was classed as a rank outsider with no chance.

"Many stories are in circulation regarding the winnings collected by backing Alcedo. It is said that Dave Johnson, the bookmaker, and David Gideon divided between them $50,000 as a result of taking advantage of the odds ranging from 10 to 1 down to 4 to 1. Frank Farrell is said to have won $20,000 on the result, while other Tammany men pocketed an aggregate of $60,000.

"It is the general opinion among turfmen that had Alcedo been extended he would have beaten Salvador's record of 2:05 for the distance. As it was the colt was virtually well in hand all the way and won, eased up, in a gallop. It will be some time, too, it is thought, before the Suburban or the Brooklyn is run so swiftly again. At the same time it must be remembered that the Sheepshead Bay track at present is faster than in many years."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Fasig-Tipton Company has received instructions from Mrs. Marcus Daly to sell, in Madison Square Garden next October, the entire thoroughbred stud of the late Marcus Daly in England, including broodmares in foal to the leading English sires, among which is Lady Reel, the dam of Hamburg, in foal to St. Simon; ten yearlings, twelve foals and a two-year-old colt by Isinglass—Lady Cross, by St. Simon, which is considered to be the best of his age ever owned by Mr. Daly. The sires represented include St. Simon, Persimmon, St. Frusquin, St. Serf, Raeburn, Childwick, St. Angelo, Donovan, Winner—Br. c. by Lamplighter—Serene. Went to post at 2:30. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. De Reszke, finely handled, came away as he pleased in the stretch. Highlander, a big, unwieldy colt, showed a lot of speed and will do better in vigorous hands. Essene finished fast and may be useful. Lady Sterling is a good looker and will be heard from early. Bella, poorly handled, has worked well. Concertina is evidently not above moderate class.

De Reszke, show, 1 to 3. Highlander, show, 7 to 10. Essene, show, 4 to 1.

26099 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. (Main Track.) $800 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances. Fillies and Mares.

Winner—B. f. by Meddler—Sunnyside. Went to post at 3:02. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Morningside ran around the entire field on the turn and easily assumed command in the stretch and was going away at the end. Glennellie put up a speedy and game race. Templeton should have been second, however, was pocketed and shut off on the stretch turn and finished fast. Trigger closed a gap, but was out of place here and wants a route. Sweet Lavender was going easy to the stretch, but quit when called on. Musette, off poorly and carried very wide on the turn, appeared to be a contender to the stretch, but tired and was short.

Scratched—25897 May W., 123; 25919 Belle of Lexington, 118; 25162 Mintage, 95; 25820 Maria Bolton, 95.

*Completed in betting. Winner—B. c. by St. Maxim—Frances S. Went to post at 3:55. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Francesco was best and went to the front with ease after waiting on the pacemaker to the stretch. Dixieline, carried wide, finished very strongly and ran a fine race. Dean Swift has been very highly tried, was a contender throughout and ran gamely at the end. Sister Juliet displayed brilliant speed and only failed at the end. Saturday was going strongly, but trained off. Hanover Queen was unable to concede the weight.

Scratched—26098 Graden, 117; 25921 G Whittier, 117; 25059 Goldsmith, 117. Francesco, show, out. Dixieline, show, 2 to 1. Dean Swift, show, 3 to 1. The entry, show, out.

Winner—Ch. h. by Friar's Balsam—Mavourneen. Went to post at 4:10. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily up; second easily. Voter far outclassed the field and was never extended. It was a case of "Eclipse first and the rest nowhere." Brigadier broke slowly, but closed an immense gap and was easily second best. Dublin lost ground at the start and was buffeted about to the last furlong, where he came through with a rush. Knight of Rhodes, Gulden and Lady Uncas raced well throughout. Carbuncle was out of place, but ran as if very good. King Lief got off badly and showed an unaccountable lack of speed. Mesmerist was prominent to the stretch, where he failed signally.

Scratched—25955 Hellobas, 126; 26099 Musette, 105; 22189 Belle of Troy, 105; 26038 All Gold, 102; 26099 Lady of the Valley, 90.

Voter show, 1 to 4. Brigadier, show, 6 to 5. Dublin, show, 8 to 5.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Kendal, Orim, Martagon, Isinglass, Janissary, Le Var, Royal Hampton, Ayrshire, Ladas, Trenton and Melton.

The New Windsor Jockey Club has opened three stakes, to close July 1, that will be well worth the attention of horsemen. They are the International Handicap for three-year-olds and upward, one mile; the City of the Straits Stakes, for two-year-olds, five furlongs; the Dash Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs. To each the entrance is $5, with $25 additional to start, $700 added. The Windsor meeting will begin July 22, with every prospect pointing to good racing and prosperity bringing patronage. Entries should be addressed to L. C. Wiswell, secretary, Windsor, Ont.

WINNING OWNERS AT GRAVESEND.

The spring meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, which came to an end recently, resulted in a greater distribution of the money among owners than at any meeting held in some time. As was the case at Morris Park, John Madden heads the list, but in figures only, for the crack two-year-old filly, Blue Girl, again won the most money. Half of the winnings, however, go to W. C. Whitney, who is a half owner. The firm of J. R. & F. P. Keene won $10,060, with Conroy, by his victory in the Brooklyn Handicap, the chief breadwinner. Bonniert's victory in the Brooklyn Derby on Thursday put his owner, Frank Farrell, in third place, with $9,455 to his credit, while Whiskey King's success in the Tremont Stakes and King Pepper's victory, both on Thursday, boosted the Pepper Stable's winnings. Those who won $700 or over follow:

Winner—B. c, by Candlemas—Utility.
Went to post at 4:43. At post 15 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Wax Taper met with some interference in the first three-quarters but when straightened away for the wire he went by Kilogram and Scurry as if they were standing still, showed high form and ran like a stake horse. Scurry was saved in the first part of the race and closed strongly. Kilogram was going very easy to the stretch but failed badly when called on. Andronicus, off poorly, closed strongly at the end. He was a badly handled horse but wants a longer race. Oread looks good and was short. Her forte is mud always.
Scratched—26079 Intrusive, 124; (24064) Belgrade, 109; 25758 Bondman, 106; (25758) Nitrate, 94; 25955 Sneaky, 93.

Went to post at 5:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Prince Richard simply played with the other two. He ran an amazingly fast race and is a wonder on the grass course. Decater, himself a superior horse on the grass track, was unable to keep within striking distance. Belle of Troy was short but looks good and should give a good account of herself from now on.

Winner—B. f. by Ben Strome—Queen of Trumps.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start excellent. Won driving; second easily. Nyx was well ridden and showed the most speed, but had to be urged out in the last fifty yards to stall off Omar's bid. The latter got into an early jam, but got out after running a quarter and finished strongly. San Andres, slow in getting to going well, made up a great deal of ground and was running fast at the end. Lady Rice skinned the inside rail and saved ground, but was quitting in the last sixteenth. C. B. Campbell had no chance from where he got off.
Overweights—Nyx, 2 1/2 pounds; Rustic Girl, 2 1/2; Pencil Me, 1; Lasance, 3 1/2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—Miss Baldwin.
Went to post at 3:00. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily after a sharp drive in the last sixteenth; second easily. Ogle, outrun to the final eighth, closed fast in the last sixteenth, and catching Mabel Winn in the last fifty yards, beat her out handily. The latter tired and quit badly the last sixteenth. Ernest Parham, all tangled up at the start, finished fast in the last eighth and was fast making up ground at the end. Pyrrho tired badly in the last eighth. Jaubert could not run a little bit.
Scratched—25182 Maid of Dundee, 101; 25986 Sallie Green, 103; 25989 Irma's Choice, 105.

Winner—Ch. c. by Fonso—Falerna.
Went to post at 3:30. At post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won in a desperate drive; next two the same. Coburn rode Gonfalon hard all the way, skinned the rail at the stretch turn and barely got up on the post. Bessie Macken showed all her speed but hung when Money Muss got to her soon after entering the last quarter. It seemed for a moment as if the Wood gelding had her at the last sixteenth, but she rallied again and was going away from him at the end. Both ran wide at the head of the stretch which may account for Gonfalon's victory. St. Wood ran an excellent race and closed ground in the last eighth. Iznik was a crazy horse and was virtually left.
Scratched—Burnie Banton, 101.

26095 FOURTH RACE—5-8 Mile. 2-year-olds. Colts and Geldings. Allowances. Graduate Stakes. $1,250 added; $300 to second; $150 to third.

Went to post at 4:05. At post 30 seconds. Start good. Won easily; second the same. ABE Frank was easily the best and came on under restraint when it was evident his stable companion had the others beaten. Arian's race was a good one and he will be hard to beat when properly placed. Charles W. Meyer was always outrun. He was no doubt short and was given an easy ride when it was apparent in the last eighth that he had no chance.

Winner—Br. g. by Aerolithe—Kate Harper.
Went to post at 5:00. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Leo Newell was on his mettle and showed great gameness in the last eighth. It seemed for a moment at the last sixteenth that Nettie Regent had him, but he stuck to his work and outlasted her. The latter ran a good race and showed more gameness than usual. Chorus Boy finished her. The latter ran a good race and showed more gameness than usual. Excelsis was right there strongly after meeting with interference at several stages of the route. Excelsis was right there all the way, but hung in the closing strides. The same may be said of Tammany Chief. Frangible could not run well for much over three quarters and soon retired.

Went to post at 2:47. At post 19 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Thompson waited with Flying Bess to the stretch before making his move and she came away without much of an effort in the last sixteenth. Pharoah got in a jam directly after the start and lost a lot of ground. He then hung after closing a big gap. By George was hustled along from flag fall. Alzora stopped almost to a walk after an early showing of speed. Lawton ran a furlong in several of the breakaways and wore himself out while at the post.
